Summary

Legacy Charter Academy opened its doors to Detroit's Krainz Woods neighborhood in 2010. The academy is founded upon National Heritage Academies' four pillars to success: Academic Excellence, Moral Focus, Student Responsibility, and Parental Partnerships. The academy's goal is to continuously develop into a high-quality school that students, teachers, and the community deserve by challenging each child to achieve their greatest potential.

Highlights

The academy's spring parent satisfaction for 2022-2023 increased to 90%.

The academy earned the Safety Eagle Award, which is awarded to school by NHA for going above and beyond in meeting multiple safety benchmarks.

The academy earned the Student Enrollment Eagle Award, which is awarded to schools that meet multiple enrollment and attendance benchmarks set by NHA.

CSO Capacity Analysis

Legacy Charter Academy continues to demonstrate fiscal and organizational stability. Academic performance is improving compared to statistically similar schools. The CSO has observed that the academy board is long-standing with strong leadership in every role; they are dedicated and invested in the success of the academy. The CSO has observed that the board and school leaders are aligned in the mission and vision of the academy. The CSO has also observed that leadership is strong and intentional on cultivating a culturally diverse and positive environment within the academy. The CSO has observed that enrollment at the academy has remained steady. The totality of this evidence provides the CSO with confidence that the academy has the capacity to strengthen its academic program and remain a quality educational option for families in the community it serves.
