Art Courses Open to all Majors 2011-2012

If you are interested in taking art courses, but aren't a major, there are many options available to GVSU students. These include studio, art history, and art education classes. They are typically worth three credits and can be used as electives towards graduation. Many of them can also be used for the studio and art history minors.

No special permission necessary: Simply add the course to your schedule.

- ART 101 Introduction to Art
- ART 149 Introduction to Visual Composition (if you want to major in art take ART 150)
- ART 218 Design History
- ART 221 Survey of Art History I
- ART 222 Survey of Art History II
- ART 332 Introduction to Art Education
- ART 380 Selected Experiences in Studio Art: Drawing
- ART 380 Selected Experiences in Studio Art: Ceramics
- ART 380 Papermaking
- ART 380 Art and the Worlds of Islam
- ART 380 Picturing a Nation: 19th century American Art
- ART 380/WGS 380 Feminism in Art History
- ART 420 Asian Art

Enroll with permission from instructor and an override: To enroll, download the override form at <http://www.gvsu.edu/art/>. Complete it and contact the professor to obtain permission and his or her signature. Bring the completed override form to the Art and Design office. Permits are typically processed within two business days. Then, add the course to your schedule.
