Dr. Mohammad Saleh

MEN'S SPIRITUALITY BREAKFAST

MEN AND ISLAM (086-046)

Wednesday, October 24

7:30 - 9:00 AM

Dr. Saleh will present the main themes, principles, and practices of Islam with special emphasis on the ways in which they challenge and inspire Muslim men to fully and authentically live their faith.

Cost: $10.00

Mary Vaccaro

MOSES, FRIEND OF GOD (086-035)

Tuesdays, Oct. 23, 30; Nov. 6

7:00 - 9:00 PM

Moses lived a vibrant and adventurous life filled with a mixture of joys, sorrows, successes, failures, great love, and great loss. Through it all, he was sustained by his intimate friendship with God. During these three sessions, friends and colleagues, Albert Lewis and Mary Vaccaro will share their insights about the friendship between Moses and God and invite participants to share in the dialogue. Cost: $45.00 for 3 sessions

TUESDAY TABLETALK (086-004)

MYSTICS AND MYSTICISM

Tuesday, October 16

6:00 - 8:00 PM

DCM invites you to celebrate the year of Interfaith Understanding at Tuesday Tabletalk. Participants dine at round tables of eight comprised of persons from varying faith traditions. The evening begins with a brief presentation on a theme common to most faith traditions, followed by discussion among dinner companions as well as large group Q and A. With respect to all religious dietary customs, only vegetarian meals will be served. If you or someone in your group has other special dietary needs, call us at 616-454-1241 (Option 5 or 0). Cost: $10.00

AN EVENING OF METTA (LOVING-KINDNESS) MEDITATION (086-041)

Tuesday, November 13

7:00 - 9:00 PM

As we head into the holidays, it is wise and good to maintain an open heart. Come for a delightful evening of learning and practicing Metta Meditation (Loving-kindness meditation). Metta is sourced in the Vipassana tradition of Buddhism, but a similar version is found in Judaism, as well as in many other religious traditions. It is a practice of blessing - wishing ourselves and others well. Loving-kindness stabilizes thoughts, relaxes the mind, purifies and opens the heart. In this season of high and holy days, when we spend so much time with other people, Cost: $20.00
