

SACRED TEMPLES, SACRED TIMES

A Kirkridge Pilgrimage to India

February 12-28 2013

LED BY SHARON MILLER & VALERIE BROWN

COST: $4300—Includes round trip airfare from Newark, NJ; transportation within India, 16 nights double occupancy, many meals, English guide and much more. (Extension additional)

KIRKRIDGE RETREAT AND STUDY CENTER

More information: www.kirkridge.org

2459 Fox Gap Road
Bangor, PA 18013
610-588-1793

Sharon Miller—212-662-4315
Valerie Brown - - 215-933-9978

- New Delhi— The Great Mosque, Bahai' Temple and Akshardham Temple
- Agra—The Taj Mahal
- Varanasi—the sacred city on the Ganges
- Sarnath—Buddha's first school
- Amritsar—the Sikh's Golden Temple
- Dharamshala— Tibetan Buddhism & the Dalai Lama's home
- Optional extended trip to Quaker-sponsored Right Sharing of World Resources project in South India

India, steeped in spirituality and religion, is one of the most religiously diverse and vibrant countries in the world. In this Kirkridge pilgrimage, we explore the sacred sites of North India in order to create greater interfaith understanding and to build a deeper appreciation for both our own faith traditions and that of others. Most days will include time for meditation and reflection.