

*The English Department Is Pleased To Announce
The 2011 Winners Of:*

The Robert L. Chamberlain Scholarship:

Sarah Persenaire Stephanie Wiltze

The Gilbert and Patricia Davis Scholarship:

Josh Aldrich Graham Liddell Patrick Taylor

The Oldenburg Writing Contest:

Personal Essay

First Place: Katie Phelan: “Gold”
Second Place: Garrett Dennert: “Blood on the Ground”
Third Place Tie: Ashley Zirkle: “How to Go to a Funeral”
Third Place Tie: Josh Aldrich: “Casimir Pulaski Day”

Analytical and Persuasive Essay

First Place: Dawn Heerspink: “Who is the Hatter and Where’s the Tea Party”
Second Place: Anna Worm: “Despair, Hope, and Eternal Life in “Deor””
Third Place: Courtney Wirt: “The Rituals of Solitude, Faith, and a Civilization Lost: Michel Tournier’s Friday”

Poetry

First Place: Kristina Pepelko: “Portfolio of Four Poems”
Second Place : Emily Loftis: “Portfolio of Three Poems”
Third Place : Stefan Holtrey: “Portfolio of Five Poems”

Fiction

First Place: Ian McCaul: “The Uncle Comes to Stay”
Second Place: Claire Helakoski: “Every Rose”
Third Place Tie: Meghan McAfee: “Half the Sky”
Third Place Tie: Emily Loftis: “The Dancing Bear”

Drama

First Place: Graham Liddell: “I’m Not Hungry”

Graduate Student

First Place: Wesley Mueller: “Nancy’s Joy”
Second Place: David VandeWaa: “Milton and Science: Depictions of the Universe and the Pursuit of Knowledge in Paradise Lost”
Third Place: Jonathan Whitmer: “The Enigma of Influence”