

Which Program is Best for You?

Question: If you choose the new teacher education program, can any of your "old" classes count?

Answer: Check out "Hybrid Options" below. Depending on what you have already taken, you may be able to count as many as 5 classes toward the new program.

Old Program Must finish by Dec 2012	New Program	Hybrid Options With Course Substitutions
Pre-Admission Courses—New Courses Begin Winter 2010
(3) PSY 301 Child Dev't	(3) PSY 301 Child Development	Same course
(3) PSY 325 Ed Psychology	(3) ED 337 Intro. to Learning & Assessment	Old PSY 325 fulfills new ED 337
(3) ED 200 Intro to Ed	(3) ED 315 Diverse Perspectives in Education	Old ED 200 fulfills new ED 315
(3) ED 205 Ed Tech
(3) ED 225 Diversity in Ed
Teacher Assisting Semester—New Courses Begin Fall 2010
(6) ED 330/331 Assisting	(5) ED 330/331 Teacher Assisting
(3) ED 310 Classroom Env'ts	(3) ED 310 Classroom Environments
(3) ED 320/321 Reading	(3) ED320/321 Reading
	(3) *ED 370 Technology in Education	Old ED 205 fulfills new ED 370
	(3) *ED 378/379 Universal Design
	*ED 370 and/or ED 378/379 may be taken during or after Assisting— but must be taken before Student Teaching
Student Teaching Semester—New Courses Begin Winter 2011
(12) ED 430/431 St. Teaching	(10) ED 430/431 Student Teaching
	(3) ED 485 Context of ED Issues (May be taken after Student Teaching —but before Cert.)	Old ED 225 fulfills new ED 485
(39) Credits	(39) Credits	(39) Credits

For more advice, call or visit ~~

COE Student Information and Services Center (101 EC, 616-331-6650) www.gvsu.edu/coe

Major Advisor or CLAS Advising Center (C-1-140 MAK, 616-331-8585)

www.gvsu.edu/clasadvising