

WORKSHOP BROWN BAG

Anthropology in Practice: Give Yourself the Internship Advantage

November 6, 12- 1 PM, Anth Lab, LMH 249

The Anthropology Internship Program invites anthropology students to learn more about our internship program. Hear from students who interned during the summer. Professors Rhoads and Schwartz will facilitate this “Brown Bag” event. Snacks provided.

Department Resources

Go to the Anthropology Department website and explore resources on Field Schools and Internships such as profiles of selected organizations, local and international, the course syllabus, forms, and a check-list to help you prepare for your internship. Contact your academic advisor or other anthropology faculty about your internship choices.
