Healing the Legacy of the Boarding Schools 1879-2009

On May 16th 2009, White Bison began a 40-day, 6800 mile cross-country journey to present and former Indian School sites. Its goal is to promote awareness, dialogue and forgiveness among Native peoples for the historical trauma of the Indian Boarding School Era which began in 1879. Take a journey with Hunter Genia and Shannon Martin who served on a committee endorsed by the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan to bring this national movement event to a local level in Mt. Pleasant, MI. Hunter and Shannon will share some of the challenges and rewards of hosting this event in their community. Faculty, staff, students and the public are welcome!
