

SW 631/351 Cross Cultural Service Learning
with Native Americans

Saginaw Chippewa
in Mt. Pleasant, MI.
Dr. Patty Stow Bolea

What it is:

A 3 credit course exploring Social Work issues with Native American members of Saginaw Chippewa tribe in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan using service learning and experiential teaching methods.

Counts as social work elective (Group B or D for MSW students) (New curriculum = advanced policy option)

When it is:

Monday May 3 – May 14

1 Preparatory sessions and one follow up session are required for credit.

Where it is:

Social Service Agencies in Mt. Pleasant, MI

Who is it for?

A selective group of 10-15 GVSU BSW Candidates and/or MSW Students in Good Academic standing.

You will need to:

Apply and be admitted

Pay for 3 tuition credits

Provide your own transportation, money for lodging, food, and occasional admission costs. Total cost to be announced.

Be prepared to:

Learn!

Travel in Michigan

Improve your cultural competency

Be of service to the community

Information Meeting and Applications
Monday February 15 3:00PM
Social Work Office,
DeVos Center 391C

