

CRISIS SITUATION	CONTACT INFORMATION	DESCRIPTION
Actual / Suspected Child Abuse	800-942-4357 800-4-A-CHILD www.childhelpusa.org www.michigan.gov/dhs	Michigan Children's Protective Services Hotline: Call to report actual or suspected child abuse. Childhelp USA: Provides crisis counseling, referral, and literature to those who wish to report actual or suspected child abuse, victims of child abuse, and perpetrators of child abuse. You may also report actual or suspected child abuse to your local branch of the Michigan Department of Human Services.
Rape / Incest	800-656-HOPE www.rainn.org	RAINN - Rape, Abuse, and Incest National Network: Provides crisis counseling and referral to victims of rape and incest.
Homeless / Runaway Youth	800-RUNAWAY www.nrscrisisline.org 800-551-1300 www.childrenofthenight.org	National Runaway Switchboard: Provides crisis counseling, referral, and literature to homeless and runaway youth, parents of homeless and runaway youth, and others concerned about the welfare of a homeless or runaway youth. Children of the Night: Provides crisis counseling and referral to homeless and runaway youth involved in prostitution.
Suicide	800-273-TALK www.save.org 800-SUICIDE www.hopeline.com	National Suicide Hotline: Provides crisis counseling and referral to men, women, and children suffering from depression and / or contemplating suicide; also provides information for those confronted with a suicidal person. National Hopeline Network: Connects callers to a local suicide crisis center.
Cutting / Self-mutilation	800-DONT-CUT www.selfinjury.com	S.A.F.E. Alternatives – Self Abuse Finally Ends: Provides information and literature about self-injury. 1-800-DON'T-CUT does NOT provide crisis counseling. S.A.F.E. Alternatives is a treatment program for those who self-injure; it is located in Chicago.
Unplanned Pregnancy	888-4-OPTIONS www.thehelpline.org	America's Pregnancy Helpline: Provides information to teens experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Connects young people to local pregnancy counselors and services.

AIDS / HIV	800-872-AIDS www.aidspartnership.org 800-342-AIDS	AIDS Partnership-Michigan: Provides information and referral regarding sexual health and HIV infection. National AIDS Hotline: Provides information and referral to local hotlines, testing centers, and counseling.
Alcohol / Drug Abuse	800-234-0420 800-COCAINE 800-662-HELP	Alcohol and Drug Abuse Crisis Line: Provides alcohol and drug counseling, information about alcohol and drug abuse, and referral to local alcohol and drug abuse treatment facilities. National Cocaine Hotline: Provides crisis counseling, information, and referral for those with drug or alcohol dependency. National Drug Information, Treatment, and Referral Hotline: Provides information and referral to local alcohol and drug abuse treatment facilities to substance users and those concerned with a friend or family member's drug or alcohol use.
Eating Disorders	847-831-3438 www.anad.org 800-931-2237 www.nationaleatingdisorders.org	National Association of Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders: Provides crisis counseling, referral to support groups and treatment providers, and information about healthy eating habits. National Eating Disorders Association: Provides information about eating disorders and referral to eating disorder treatment providers to those afflicted with an eating disorder and those concerned with the eating habits of a friend or family member.
Sexuality	888-THE-GLNH www.glnh.org	The GLBT Help Center: Provides peer counseling, information, and referral to the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender community.
Miscellaneous	800-HIT-HOME www.1800hithome.com	Youth Crisis Hotline: Provides crisis counseling, information, and referral to youth experiencing any number of crisis situations.