

2009 Earth Science Week
Final Schedule

Monday October 12, 2009

11:00 - 11:50 PM Kirkhof 2215/2216

"Hydrologic Impairment in Streams: When Water Becomes a Pollutant."

Dr. Richard Rediske

Annis Water Resources Institute

Grand Valley State University

Monday October 12, 2009

12:00 - 12:50 Kirkhof 2215/2216

"Geology's Role in the Multi-Disciplinary Approach to Solving Today's Environmental Business Problems"

Mr. Eric J. Hanis, P.G.

Burns and McDonnell

Downers Grove, Illinois

Monday October 12, 2009

4:00 - 4:50 PM Loutit 101

"Putting Michigan's Geologic Assets to Work. A look at how modern science, technology, and public policy work to enable the necessary building blocks of society to be produced in an environmentally and socially responsible manner."

Ms. Victoria Peacey

Health, Safety & Environment Manager

Mr. David Huey

Geologist

Rio Tinto/Kennecott Eagle Minerals Company

Upper Peninsula, Michigan

Tuesday October 13, 2008

2:00 - 2:50 PM Kirkhof 2204 (Pere Marquette)

"Walking on Lava: A Volcanologist's Journey".

Ms. Tari Mattox

Grand Rapids Community College

Wednesday October 14, 2008

1:30 - 2:30 PM Kirkhof 2263

"Dinosaurs: More Than Just Old Bones"

Dr. Christopher Noto

Department of Biomedical Sciences

Grand Valley State University