

Agreement Form for Tape Recording Lectures

Under Section 504, Subpart E Postsecondary Education, of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act, institutions of higher education must provide reasonable accommodations to a student's known disability and may not deny equal access to the institution's programs, courses and activities. Tape recording lectures is a reasonable accommodation for students who documentation calls for this accommodation.

Faculty have the right to require a student who uses a tape recorder to sign an agreement for tape recording and present the form to the instructor.

I, _____, agree that I will (student's name)

not release the tape recordings, or transcription, or otherwise hinder

(professor/instructor's name)

ability to obtain a copyright on lectures that I have taped in (department, course number, and title)

(student signature)

This form is to be submitted to the instructor/professor upon completion.
