

Learn more about the Master in Public Health Program

Public health professionals promote good health and prevent disease within communities. The Master of Public Health program provides graduate and community-based education and research grounded in social justice to help meet these goals. Join us at the following information sessions to learn more about our program!

Monday, January 16

Cook DeVos Center for Health Sciences CHS 115 @ 12PM

Tuesday, January 17

Allendale Kirkhof
Center 1104 @ 10AM

Tuesday, January 17

Webinar @ 3PM

Wednesday, January 18

DeVos 303C @ 5PM

Thursday, January 19

Allendale Kirkhof
Center 1104 @ 4PM

No RSVP required
for Info sessions.
Must register for Webinar.

Registration for the Webinar begins Nov. 1st at www.gvsu.edu/grad/mph

Check our website for updates
www.gvsu.edu/grad/mph

GRAND VALLEY
STATE UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Ranelle Brew, Department Chair Public Health | brewr@gvsu.edu
545 Michigan Street, Suite 300 | Grand Rapids, MI - 49503
(616) 331 - 5570 | mphdept@gvsu.edu