What does Black Lives Matter mean?

Why is acknowledging this fact, that black lives matter, so controversial?

Have all black lives mattered equally?

While examining the development of the political organization, Black Lives Matter, and focusing on the broad implications of the words Black Lives Matter, this one-credit course will pay special attention to the historical forces of racial power and privilege that made it necessary to create a new term for an old problem: police brutality.

Professor Louis Moore
Monday/Friday 11:00 am-12:15 pm
CON 214 (The Connection)