

THE
ROBERT AND
MARY PEW FACULTY TEACHING AND LEARNING CENTER

Promoting scholarly teaching
Building an inclusive community

Supporting reflective practice
Collaborating across the university

Rewarding teaching innovation
Encouraging career-long growth

CURRENT INITIATIVES

Fostering civic engagement and designing community based teaching approaches

Creating inclusive classrooms and meeting the needs of diverse learners

Cultivating student engagement through innovative classroom spaces and pedagogies

Supporting introductory course teaching methods through the Strong Start Initiative

Building a collaborative Data Inquiry Lab for faculty, staff, and students

Strengthening design thinking initiatives via research-based pedagogical approaches to empathy, collaboration, and risk-taking

Disseminating best practices in interpreting student course feedback

Practicing mindfulness in and out of the classroom

Promoting the scholarship of teaching and learning

LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Faculty Learning Communities
Scheduled and On-demand Workshops
Retreats and Teaching Institutes
20 Minute Mentor Commons
Online Learning Consortium Courses

MENTORING

First Year Faculty Mentoring Communities
Faculty-to-Faculty Mentoring Program
Mentor Training

SERVICES FOR FACULTY

Part-time Faculty Support
Confidential Consultations
Class Observations
Mid-semester Interviews About Teaching
Teaching Awards

GRANTS PROGRAM

Teaching Innovation Grant
Faculty Conference Travel Grant
Webinar Facilitation Grant
Sponsored Teaching and Learning Event Grant
Faculty Learning Community Participation Grant

RESOURCES

www.gvsu.edu/ftlc
Resource Library in 068 James H. Zumberge Hall
Pew FTLC Newsletters
Faculty Fellows - tenured faculty consultants