Mary Whiteford for State Representative (MI-80)

Overview:
The Mary Whiteford for State Rep. campaign is now accepting applications for anyone interested in an internship or volunteer opportunity during the summer of 2014. Mary Whiteford is currently running for the 80th state house district consisting of nearly all of Allegan County. Mary is a small business owner who was previously a pediatric emergency room nurse. She is currently serving on the Michigan Women’s Commission, a position appointed by Governor Snyder. The primary election is August 5th and the general election is in November. Position Overview:
The intern will work directly with the campaign manager and candidate while gaining valuable campaign experience in communications, campaign management, fieldwork, fundraising and more. This fast-paced experience will enable the intern to experience the multiple dimensions of a competitive political campaign and develop professional relationships within the community.

Hours:
This is an unpaid internship based in Allegan County. The intern will be able to receive college credit or assist as a volunteer. Mary’s campaign is more than willing to be flexible with your hours and weekly schedule. Start/End dates are negotiable. Interns, in return, should be willing to be flexible when working with us. Keep in mind that you will get as much out of this opportunity as the time you are willing to put into it.

Requirements:
The intern will be expected to complete tasks and assignments accurately and on time. They also must be hardworking and extremely dedicated.

How to Apply:
If interested, please send a resume with the names and contact information of two (2) references to the campaign manager, Tobias Hutchins, at tobias@votemarywhiteford.com. You may also contact us with any questions you may have.

Best,
Tobias Hutchins
