

WINTER 2017

PLS 325 Human Rights and Democracy in Russia and the Post-Communist World

Tuesday/Thursday, 4:00 - 5:15 p.m., 121 Lake Huron Hall

Discover the politics of post-Soviet Russia, the former Soviet Union, and post-communist Europe and how political regimes affect human rights. Emphasis is placed on the different levels of state repression and civil, political, social, and economic rights across the region.

Prerequisite: PLS 103 or junior standing.

Heather L. Tafel, Ph.D. • Political Science Department

For more information, contact tafelh@gvsu.edu