

POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

SPRING/SUMMER COURSES 2016

SPRING

May 9 - June 22

PLS 102 01 (CRN 37748) American Government and Politics

Course Description: Examines governing institutions and political conflicts, with an emphasis on the 2016 presidential election.

Time/Location: ONLINE

Faculty: Whitt Kilburn, Ph.D.

PLS 206 01 (CRN 37388) American Constitutional Foundations

Course Description: American politics with a comprehensive look at the US Constitution, including civil rights, civil liberties, free speech, and gun control

Time/Location: Monday/Wednesday, 6-9:20 p.m. Pew Campus - EC 410

Faculty: Paul Cornish, Ph.D.

PLS 232 01 (CRN 37402) Modern Political Thought (SWS)

Course Description: Examines theories of freedom, equality, political legitimacy, and revolution

Time/Location: Monday/Wednesday, 12-3:20 p.m. Pew Campus - EC 710

Faculty: Darren Walhof, Ph.D.

PLS 302 01 (CRN 37709) Women, Politics, and Public Policy

Course Description: Examines women in government and elections! Also policy issues like welfare, abortion, family leave, education, and the war on women

Time/Location: ONLINE

Faculty: Laura Schneider, Ph.D.

SUMMER

June 27 - August 10

PLS 211 01 (CRN 31106) International Relations

Course Description: Provides an introduction to global integration and international political, social, and economic conflict and cooperation.

Time/Location: Monday/Wednesday, 6-9:20 p.m. Pew Campus - EC 710

Faculty: Roger Moiles, M.A.

Questions? Contact the Political Science Department at plsdept@gvsu.edu or 616-331-2320