

Growing Food, Sustaining Communities:

Agriculture and Community in International Contexts

Please join us for a lunchtime conversation series about the social and community dimensions of international sustainable agriculture

2nd Friday each Month      Honors Multipurpose Room      11:00am – 1:00pm

HOPE FARMS:

January 16: Farmers from Hope Farms

A farm where refugees develop their farming experience into deeper agricultural and entrepreneurial skills.

SUSTAINABLE INTENSIFICATION:

February 13: Chiwimbo Gwenambira

Sustainable intensification: Pigeonpea and the doubled-up legume cropping systems in Malawi

ENTREPRENEURIAL STEWARDSHIP:

March 13: Suzanne Armstrong

Entrepreneurial Stewardship: Christian Family Farming in Ontario, Canada

Sponsored by Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies, the Farm Club, Liberal Studies Department, the Office of Sustainability Practices, Religious Studies Program, the Sustainable Agriculture Project, and the Wesley Fellowship.