Course Description:

From the Catalog:

Study of the application of learning principles, techniques, and procedures to the understanding and treatment of human psychological problems in a wide range of settings.

More information:

This course is designed as an overview of Applied Behavior Analysis for advanced undergraduate students. This course takes an empirical approach to behavioral psychology, and will examine the relevant theoretical underpinnings of behavioral techniques, strategies to design effective interventions, and various applications. Please note that you will be asked to critically examine empirical data and the rationale for behavioral interventions. This course will expose students to the study and the application of learning principles, techniques and procedures to the understanding and treatment of human behavioral and psychological problems in a wide range of settings. Some areas of application include developmental disabilities, special education, clinical psychology, business and industry, self-management, child management, and preventative behaviors.

Course Objectives:

1. Differentiate between various principles of operant conditioning, including but not limited to reinforcement, punishment, extinction, shaping, chaining, and verbal and rule-governed behavior.
2. Evaluate a behavior modification program and use the theoretical principles to understand, modify, and shape programs to modify behavior in a variety of settings and service organizations.
3. Describe behavioral problems and the underlying principles used to explain such aberrant behavior, as well as possible consequences of maladaptive behavior.

Grading:

Grades are calculated by dividing the total number of points earned by the total number of possible points (260). A letter grade will be assigned based on the grading scale listed below.

		Grading Scale
		93% and above	A
		90% - 92%	A-

Course Requirements
Quizzes (6@10pts)	60pts
Exams (3@50pts)	150pts
Assignments (2@25pts)	50pts
Total	260 pts

Exams: 150 pts

There will be three exams in this class. The dates for each examination are listed on the course schedule. Each examination will be worth 50 points and will consist of multiple-choice, true/false, matching, and/or short answer/essay questions. The final examination in this course is cumulative. The content on the exams will be drawn from the assigned readings and lecture.

All exams are taken on Blackboard. The exams are open-note, but they must be completed independently. The exam will open at 8:00am on the due date, and must be completed by midnight. You will be given 2 hours to complete the exam. No late exams will be accepted unless there are exceptional circumstances (see below).

Make-up exams: Make up exams are only permitted for extenuating circumstances. If you must miss an exam due to an extenuating circumstance, you must contact me at least 24hrs prior to the exam. If I determine that you may make-up the exam, you must make-up the exam within 24hrs of the scheduled exam period. In addition, I may require documentation (doctor note, car repair bill, etc.).

Quizzes: 60pts

There will be six quizzes (10pts each) in this class. All quizzes are on Blackboard. You have an unlimited amount of time to complete the quizzes, but once you begin a quiz, you must complete it. In addition, quizzes must be completed independently (you may not work in groups to complete the quiz).

Assignments: 50pts

There will be four assignments available for this class. You must select 2 of the assignments to complete. The assignment due dates are spaced throughout the semester. Each assignment is worth 25pts. Detailed information about each assignment will be provided on Blackboard.

Course Specific Policies

- 1) Attendance: Class attendance is considered required. While attendance is not part of your grade, I will take it each class period to keep record of who is present. If you must miss a class, be sure to review the lecture notes and watch the recorded lecture (if available). Please note, I frequently make announcements in class that may not be posted on Blackboard. If you miss a class, please make sure that you check with your peers regarding any updates or class announcements.
- 2) Late assignments: Late assignments must be approved by the course instructor 24hrs prior to the assignment deadline. I am generally flexible with deadlines, but you must communicate with me ahead of time. Failure to obtain approval within this timeframe will result in a 10% deduction each 24hr period past the deadline.

University Policies

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If there is any student in this class who has special needs because of a learning, physical, or other disability, please contact me or Disability Support Services (DSS) at 331-2490. Although students with disabilities are held to the same academic standards as all other students, accommodations will be provided for you, as appropriate. Where warranted, accommodations will also be provided to students without a diagnosed disability if that student discusses the specific need with me and the accommodation appears to be justified. Furthermore, if you have a disability and think you will need assistance evacuating this classroom and/or building in an emergency situation, please make me aware so I can develop a plan to assist you.

Academic Integrity: Students are expected to adhere to the university's policies on Academic Honesty. These policies are described in the catalog and in the Student Code. Cheating and plagiarism will be dealt with as per the procedures described in the Student Code.

Plagiarism: As described in Section 223.01 of the Student Code, "any ideas or material taken from another source for either written or oral presentation must be fully acknowledged. Offering the work of someone else as one's own is plagiarism. The language or ideas taken from another may range from isolated formulas, sentences, or paragraphs to entire articles copied from books, periodicals, speeches or the writings of other students ... Any student who fails to give credit in written or oral work for the ideas or materials that have been taken from another is guilty of plagiarism." In sum, copying the work of any other individual, whether that of another student, researcher, author or editor is considered plagiarism. This is not acceptable and will be dealt with according to the policies set forth in the Student Code, which may include receiving a 0 on the assignment, failing the course, and/or other university consequences.

If you have questions regarding the appropriate use of citations and plagiarism, please contact the instructor BEFORE turning the assignment in. Please note that taking extensive content word-for-word from a journal, book or website is considered plagiarism.
