

Discovering STEM Data Collection

It has been our pleasure working with you on this year's Discovering STEM program. We hope that the students and staff in your school/organization found the program to be a worthwhile one that has heightened interest in STEM education and helped to improve the quality of science, mathematics, technology, and engineering education as well.

We would greatly appreciate if you could provide the following information as a part of our data collection process:

Name of school
Date & time of your event
Total number of students that attended your STEM event
