

GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY PRESENTS

SUPER SCIENCE SATURDAY

THE WONDER of LIGHT

IN CELEBRATING
THE INTERNATIONAL
YEAR OF LIGHT 2015 AND THE
GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY REGIONAL
MATH AND SCIENCE CENTER'S 25th ANNIVERSARY

Experience light as it applies to understanding biology, earth science, physics, engineering, technology, history, art, and more! There will be large group presentations by Grand Valley faculty members and guest presenters. Every lab and classroom will be filled with hands-on science activities! No registration required.

Hosted by Grand Valley State University

- Regional Math and Science Center
- College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- Center for Scholarly and Creative Excellence
- Physics Department

For more information visit www.gvsu.edu/rmsc or contact the Regional Math and Science Center at (616) 331-2267

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF LIGHT
2015

INTERACTIVE, ^{hands-on} SCIENCE FUN

FOR K-12 STUDENTS, TEACHERS,
PARENTS, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS

SATURDAY

JANUARY 24 2015

OPEN HOUSE 10 AM. to 4 P.M.

SEYMOUR AND ESTHER PADNOS
HALL OF SCIENCE
GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY
ALLENDALE CAMPUS

School groups are requested to provide one adult chaperone for every five students

CELEBRATING

25
YEARS

Regional Math and Science Center

THIS EVENT IS FREE
&
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

GRAND VALLEY
STATE UNIVERSITY