Statistical Consulting Center

The SCC provides statistical advice and assistance with projects that are for research or instructional purposes. The biostatistics graduate students and statistics undergraduate students get the opportunity to work with researchers across GVSU and its environs. Learning through engagement is fostered by giving the students opportunities to lead certain aspects of the projects.

- Developing a questionnaire
- Designing a study
- Selecting a sample
- Managing and Analyzing data
- Interpreting results

- Consider a general area in which you want to conduct your research
- Start reading in your interest area including theses of current or former students
- Start formulating ideas as you read
- Keep a research notebook or journal
- Once you have decided to a research project consider –
 - Do you need approval from RPP? (Human, Animal, or Lab)
 - Do you need funding to be successful?
 - Can the project be done in the timeframe of degree?
 - Where and when should I disseminate my work?
