About the Graduate Assistants in Student Life

The seven Graduate Assistants are essential team members of Student Life. All GA positions include substantial programming responsibilities as well as significant student advising, mentoring, and/or student interaction. Each GA has specific responsibilities related to a functional area (see below) but additionally have the opportunity to become exposed and contribute to a wide array of student services and events through Student Life. Core responsibilities also include but are not limited to student staff/leader hiring, development, and evaluation, program assessment, promotions, and website maintenance. Due to the vibrant campus culture, GAs must have a willingness to work frequent irregular hours, including evenings and weekends for programs and events. Additional Office of Student Life responsibilities include but are not limited to participation in staff meetings, walk-in student advising and additional event support, as needed. In 2016-2017, five of the seven positions will be available including:

Graduate Assistant for Spotlight Productions and Kirkhof Center Programming
The GA for Spotlight Productions and Kirkhof Center Programming will provide administrative support for development and implementation of campus life programming. This includes the advising of the student organization Spotlight Productions and assisting with the programming group, Laker Traditions. The GA will coordinate several major campus events and provide leadership to the programming organizations. This position requires a willingness to work irregular hours, including evenings and weekends.
