- Discussion question 1: Should a prospectus be approved by the unit head?
  -for proposals that are originating and that will be administered within existing units, yes.
  -for proposals that are included in new units, no

- Discussion question 2: Should UCC conduct piecemeal review of large proposal packages to decrease overall review time? Is it appropriate to split the packages to expedite the review process?
  -consensus was to not change current review policies but to point out to other bodies when UCC is waiting for a single proposal that is part of a larger program that has already gone through college review.

- Discussion question 3: What number of contact hours are appropriate for a college course credit?
  -UCC members are to review material to try and provide ranges of contact hours for students per credit in the various activities that have been identified.
