INTERNSHIP

Semester in Detroit students will choose from among 40-50 Detroit-based organizations for their internship. These include non-profits, arts/culture organizations, elected officials, and groups involved in small business development, education, public policy, media, and much more. While ultimately, you will get to choose the internship that best fits with your interests, keep in mind that this is a mutual process with the community partners, and that they have the final decision on whether or not to accept you as an intern. SID students who submit applications should include a detailed description of the kind of internship they seek.

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS
