

This is the estimated budget for this study abroad program. It serves as an estimated cost of attendance for your semester or year. Students often pay for study abroad through a combination of financial aid, personal funds, scholarships, grants, and alternative loans. The total amount listed as the Total Program Cost is the maximum amount of financial aid that can be awarded to you by GVSU. This total program cost does not reflect the amount of aid you will qualify for, rather, it serves as the cap on what can be awarded.

$17,194 (estimated cost for out-of-state students who do not receive a tuition differential scholarship)

September Intensive Language

Students interested in adding the September intensive month will earn an additional 3 credits for that month bringing the number of GVSU credits to 18+ for fall semester. Charges for credits above 15 will be applied to the student's GVSU account upon return from the program.

Out-of-state students who receive a GVSU tuition differential scholarship will be able to use that scholarship towards the cost of this program. Exception: international students will not have access to the tuition differential scholarship for use towards the cost of study abroad, however, they may still be eligible for the Partnership Grant.

The Padnos International Center will be providing (2) $500 Partnership grants for the 2016-2017 academic year (excludes summer). If more than two applicants apply for this program, decisions on awards will be made based on the strength of a student's application and financial need. Students may be eligible for more than $500, but two applicants will receive a minimum of $500 in grant assistance. Decisions on awards will be made following the deadline for applications.

This estimate is based on the currency exchange rate for August 1, 2016. The exchange rate does fluctuate which may result in changes to the estimates above.

*Based on 2016-2017 in-state, upper-division tuition rate for 12-15 credits. If you complete more than 15 GVSU credits during your semester abroad, GV tuition charges for the additional credits above 15 will be billed to your GVSU student account after you return from your semester abroad and PIC completes your transfer of credit.

The cost of any study abroad program depends to a large extent on the participant's personal spending habits and lifestyle. Personal travel, entertainment, gifts, souvenirs, and other types of personal spending are costs not reflected in the above estimates.
