MOVE 2017 Student Sponsorship Information

Background and Goals

MOVE 2017 is a first-of-its-kind national gathering that will provide space for artists, activists, scholars, philanthropists, organizations and others from the Arab American community to connect, learn and exchange ideas. MOVE 2017, produced by ACCESS and its three national institutions - the Arab American National Museum (AANM), the National Network for Arab American Communities (NNAAC), and the Center for Arab American Philanthropy (CAAP) - will Mobilize, Organize, Vocalize, and Empower attendees as they explore intersectionality in a safe environment and have critical conversations about a wide range of issues impacting Arab Americans.

ACCESS is seeking high school and college partner organizations who will empower students to participate in this important event by sponsoring registration fees for students to attend MOVE 2017. Student voices are essential to the discussions that will happen at MOVE 2017, and you can help ensure that these voices are represented.

For a full list of what is included in the registration fee, visit <https://www.move2017.org/registration/>.

How to Sponsor a Student

Option 1:

1. Identify students from your institution who would be interested in attending MOVE 2017. The number of students will depend on your institution's capacity and budget. The student registration fee is $100 through September 15 and $150 after September 15.
2. Send your final list of students to Christi Taylor at ctaylor@accesscommunity.org by October 20.
3. Help students complete the registration form at <https://www.move2017.org/registration/>. Students must register by November 10.

If an institution sponsors students, they'll receive formal recognition on the MOVE 2017 website and at the event itself.

Organization Information

Please send the following information to help us with recognition and acknowledgement.

- Organization name (as it should appear on website and signage)
