Doctorate of Physical Therapy (D.P.T.)

Admissions Process

Grand Valley State University's (GVSU) Clinical Doctorate of Physical Therapy (DPT) program utilizes the Physical Therapist Centralized Application System (PTCAS) for the application process.

There is a non-refundable $500.00 deposit required to hold a position in an incoming class, once a student is admitted to the DPT Program. If a student is admitted and agrees to attend, the deposit will be applied to the first semester tuition in the DPT Program.

Application deadline: October 15th. Application and all supporting documents for PTCAS and GVSU must be VERIFIED by PTCAS by the application deadline.
