PUBLISHING/EDITING INTERNSHIPS

Sigmata who are not interested in teaching can become editors, a career that offers great flexibility and mobility. There are internships, certificate programs, and graduate degree programs available.

National Sigma Tau Delta sponsors numerous internships at Regnery Publishing, a non-fiction publisher, Washington, D.C .

Six-week summer internships	$1500
Three/four month fall/spring internships	$4000

In addition to the usual Sigma application information, prospective interns must submit three pieces of writing: a writing sample, two short paragraphs describing professional/vocational goals, and an application essay describing why the writer is interested in interning in publishing.

Deadlines:	Fall Internships	30 May
	Spring Internships	30 October
	Summer Internships	30 January

The application form is at http://www.english.org/pdf/internships/regn_int.pdf

PUBLISHING DEGREE PROGRAMS

These are not affiliated with Sigma Tau Delta, but they offer excellent training. Costs vary, as do programs and degrees.
