II. Hearing Of Requests

Requesting Organization: African Student Council

- a. Title of Request: ASC Dinner and Dance- "Coming to Africa"
b. Name(s) of Presenter(s): Bernice Fordjour
c. Amount Requested: $4,858.00
d. Description of Request:
e. Discussion: Campus Dining has agreed to have the food they would like to have to represent their African culture. They are asking for marketing and promotions and got their quote from the promotions office. The speaker is $700 for a DJ and $400 for the drummers. The drummers have a whole group that perform together and represent going to Africa. The DJ is a specialized DJ and is comfortable with African music. The organization is expecting 350 people based on the other events they have each year. They also partner with different organizations on campus. The $400 from fundraising is going towards decorations and towards the fashion show. VP Crawford explains the food is currently at $11 per head and while the board has been trying to keep it at $10, but is hesitant to cut it down because it is so specific to their culture. VP Ibarra explains it would be great to have the event LIB 101 approved and has hesitation on cutting the food service for the same reasons as VP Crawford. The commended the group on the passion behind this request.
