

ACE WOMEN'S Network™ Michigan

SPEAKERS AND CONSULTANTS BUREAU

About MI-ACE Women's Network:

The Michigan American Council on Education Women's Network was formed in 1978 and is committed to the national goals/mission of identifying, developing, encouraging, advancing, linking, and supporting (IDEALS) the retention of women in higher education throughout the state. Initially, a planning committee, the MI-ACE Women's Network is the number one network for women in higher education and the voice of Michigan women in higher education leadership. We are an award winning network, having received national recognition in 2005 and in 2016 when receiving the National ACE State Network Leadership Award. An Executive Board and State Chair currently conduct the Network's activities along with Institutional Representatives from member institutions.

What Is the Speakers and Consultants Bureau?

Launched in January 2016, the Speakers and Consultants Bureau is a resource for member institutions to utilize the vast amounts of expertise within the state, offering speakers for campus events at no cost. It allows member institutions to grow through accessible and relevant professional development opportunities. The program has provided speakers for numerous higher education activities to allow women leaders and aspiring leaders to participate in discussions on various topics such as:

- Leadership Issues and Breaking the Blass Ceiling
- Understanding Cultural Change
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
- Public Policy Issues
- Personal Branding and Building Your Professional Portfolio
- Resilience and Work-Life Balance
- Mentoring
- Making the Net-Work (Building Relationships)
- Preparing for Retirement
- Workplace Violence and Campus Safety
- International Education
- Project Management
- Challenges Facing Higher Education
- Customized Training
- Compelling Stories of Success (Real Life Experiences)
