Search for Freedom

(2003) 54 minutes/subtitled

Traces the dramatic social and political history of Afghanistan from the 1920s to the present through the stories of four remarkable women. The video includes stunning archival footage from the early 20th century and captures a time of remarkable progress and freedom for women. A nuanced portrait of women who find choices where none are offered, who continue to find hope in the face of exile and isolation.
