

DR. COREY SEEMILLER'S

STUDENT LEADERSHIP COMPETENCIES

COOK LEADERSHIP ACADEMY 2020-2021

Self Understanding

Enhancing an understanding of one's personality, beliefs, strengths and weaknesses, and interests.

Productive Relationships

Cultivating meaningful connections with others that contribute positively to the well-being of those involved.

Social Justice

Working toward a more equitable distribution of social power.

Conflict Negotiation

Keeping tensions and emotions to a minimum, focusing solely on the issue, balancing the needs of all involved, and finding common ground to manage disagreement

Vision

Developing a statement that defines the aspiration and direction of an individual or organization to guide actions and decisions.

Responding to Ambiguity

Responding to an unpredictable situation by adapting one's plans and moving forward without all the information.

Find the Student Leadership Competencies Handbook in Grand Valley's online library .

Source: <https://studentleadershipcompetencies.com>