W.A.V.E, a wellness and vibrancy event series

Join the Advisors from the CECI Undergraduate Advising Center for events throughout the year!

In our office we want to encourage our students to achieve academic excellence through prioritizing themselves first. As majors that are gearing toward helping professions, the CECI advising office wants to instill self-care and helpful coping strategies through these events for our students. It is time to focus on you through this series of events and we hope you will enjoy!

Student Organizations in CECI

Students in the College of Education and Community Innovation have developed excellent student organizations that fulfill a variety of interests. Here are ten reasons you should join one of these groups:

- Expand your professional network
- Assume new leadership roles
- Find learning opportunities and mentors
- Give back to your community
- Develop your soft skills
- Work on team-building
- Experience welcoming and supportive environments
- Share perspectives and experiences with peers and advisors
- Strengthen your resume
- Take a break and have some fun
