January Advising Update

Some things to remember as we start the winter semester:

- Now is a great time to meet with your professional advisor. Resolve issues from fall or look ahead to March registration. We are available to connect with you in-person (Allendale or Pew Campus), by phone, or over Zoom. Schedule an appointment in Navigate today!
- Spring Break is March 2-9, plan to meet with your advisor BEFORE spring break!
- Upcoming classes for summer are viewable now in Banner. Fall & Winter classes will be viewable on March 1st.
- The 2025-2026 Registration Calendar will be on the Registrar's website under "All Calendars" March 1st.
- Registration will open later in March and it is based on the number of credits applied in myPath.

New to GVSU as a First-year Student or Transfer student?

Remember, if you are new to GVSU as a first-year student or a transfer student, you will need to meet with a professional advisor this semester in order to be able to register for 2025-2026 classes. Watch for an email invitation to schedule an appointment. Required advising sessions will include conversation about your classes, major and minor selection, campus life, and resources to ensure you are successful on campus and ready to register for the next academic year.
