

LAKE MICHIGAN WRITING PROJECT

SUMMER INSTITUTE

June 16-20 and 23-27, 2025

Monday - Friday, 9 A.M. - 5 P.M.

GVSU Pew Campus, Grand Rapids, MI

Our two-week Invitational Summer Institute is for K-12, college, and university educators who want to improve their writing instruction. By gathering teachers from across the grade levels to learn with and from each other, we make sure that writing instruction in schools is as authentic and effective as possible.

- Because we can't teach writing well if we ourselves aren't writing, the LMWP provides financial support for teachers to have space and time to write, to exchange feedback with peers, and to revise meaningful drafts.
- In order to improve the design of instruction for 21st century students, participants read scholarship on the teaching of writing, reflect, and design unit syllabi and lesson plans.
- Participants are enrolled in ENG 632 at GVSU with a full, three-credit scholarship.

Apply today to rekindle your creative and critical voice with respectful and fun-loving colleagues.

Rachael VanDyke, 2013

Learn more and apply at:
gvsu.edu/lmwp

