

2023

GVSU AFFINITY ORIENTATIONS

August 20-22

GVSU offers four collaborative Affinity Orientations designed to support students who identify as African-American/Black, Asian/Pacific Islander, Latinx and/or Native American/Indigenous to welcome you to campus, connect with fellow students, faculty, and staff and navigate the many campus and community resources available to you. As a student with multiracial identities we invite you to participate in any of all of the orientations that you identify with.

Orientations includes:

Workshops on cultural identity, campus resources, faculty/staff mentorship, and team building events.

Early move-in on August 20 for on-campus housing

Deadline to register: July 31

Register at www.gvsu.edu/oma/orientations or scan the QR Code below.

