It's Time You Get to Know Us!

We're the company that's always there for the educational community.

Meemic Insurance Company has always been exclusively focused on the educational community. In 1950, a small group of educators formed Meemic because they wanted to be sure that their colleagues received the protection they needed at rates they could afford. Meemic is a financially strong* company that provides auto, home and personal umbrella insurance coverage tailored exclusively to members of the educational community.

Whether you're a professor, administrator or staff member, you will see that Meemic's commitment to the educational community expands far beyond insurance. In 1992, the non-profit Meemic Foundation for the Future of Education was established to offer financial assistance through grants to educational employees and institutions. Since then, The Meemic Foundation has given Millions of dollars to support education.
