

Are you a student who has been exposed to COVID-19, tested positive, or are experiencing symptoms?

First, go to gvsu.edu/hro/selfassessment to complete a self-assessment. Do not worry, GVSU is here to help.

IF YOU HAVE "PASSED"

the self-assessment, you may return to campus as normal.

IF YOU "FAILED" your daily self-assessment, BUT AFTER SPEAKING TO A HEALTH PROFESSIONAL, they determine you are eligible to return to campus as normal, you may do so.

IF YOU HAVE A NEGATIVE COVID-19 TEST FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS BUT NO EXPOSURE, to someone with COVID-19, you may return to campus once symptoms improve.

IF YOU HAVE "FAILED" OR NOT PASSED THE SELF-ASSESSMENT,

- STAY HOME or in your housing unit.
- Contact the GVSU COVID-19 Resource Center (833-734-0020) to schedule a 2nd level screening test* OR for questions regarding symptoms OR other COVID-19 health related issues.

*Cost of testing will be billed to your insurance. If you are uninsured, GVSU will cover the cost.

IF YOU ARE AWAITING A SCHEDULED COVID-19 TEST RESULT FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

- STAY HOME or in your housing unit until you receive test results.
- FOLLOW QUARANTINE GUIDELINES.

NEGATIVE COVID-19 TEST FOLLOWING EXPOSURE

- to someone with COVID-19, you will:
1. Quarantine for a minimum of 14 days with or without symptoms.
 2. Respond to texts and/or phone calls from the local Health Department. Responses are required so they can release you from quarantine status.
 3. Receive daily check-in text messages from Spectrum Health.

If you reside on campus, Housing will work with you to make sure you have adequate space to quarantine, access to food, and assist you in coordinating laundry and trash pickup services. You can email housing-covid@gvsu.edu if you have questions or concerns.

POSITIVE COVID-19 TEST, YOU MUST ISOLATE.

- You will:
1. Self-isolate until released by the Health Department.
 2. Respond to texts and/or phone calls from the local Health Department. Ongoing contact is required so they can release you from isolation status.
 3. Receive daily check-in text messages from Spectrum Health.

If you reside on campus, Housing will work with you to make sure you have adequate space to isolate, provide you with an isolation kit, access to food, and assist you in coordinating laundry and trash pickup services. You can email housingcovid@gvsu.edu if you have questions or concerns.
