

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

Jane Addams selflessly dedicated her time and life to an issue that she felt so strongly about she was willing to work at the Hull House day and night. From the example set by Jane Addams and the examples we have just discussed in class you are now given the following task:

Your task is to think of and find a problem or issue that faces society today that you feel strongly about. Once you have chosen an issue or problem you would like to learn more about, research it and come up with several things that you could and can do today to help solve this problem.

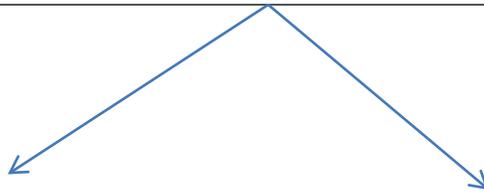

You need to provide the following information in order to receive points for this assignment:

STATE YOUR CAUSE: (the problem or issue you are choosing to address and explain why you have chosen this particular issue or problem that faces society today)

INFORMATION FOUND ABOUT YOUR CAUSE: (stats, images, articles, with website)

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW TO HELP SOLVE OR COMBAT THIS PROBLEM:
(provide at least two specific actions that you and other individuals can take to help solve the problem you have chosen, these should be things that can be done today)

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

CAUSE:

Homelessness

OR

CAUSE:

Cost of College Tuition

Problems associated with being homeless

- A) Crime
- B) Illness
- C) Disease

Average student loan (national average) indebtedness

- A) $20,000
- B) $4,000

What can you do to solve the problem?

- A) Volunteer at a soup kitchen
- B) Volunteer at a homeless center

What can you do to solve the problem?

- A) Write letters to congressmen/women
- B) Develop a plan – to reward certain professions with student loan forgiveness

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

The one cause I am willing to fight for is _____ because

Information found about your cause: __ Image(s) __ Quote(s) __ Stat(s)

What can you do to solve the problem?

- 1.

- 2.

Closed Strategy

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

Jane Addams selflessly dedicated her time and life to an issue that she felt so strongly about she was willing to work at the Hull House day and night. From the example set by Jane Addams and the examples we have just discussed in class you are now given the following task:

Your task is to think of and find a problem or issue that faces society today that you feel strongly about. Once you have chosen an issue or problem you would like to learn more about, research it and come up with several things that you could and can do today to help solve this problem.

You need to provide the following information in order to receive points for this assignment:

STATE YOUR CAUSE: (the problem or issue you are choosing to address and explain why you have chosen this particular issue or problem that faces society today)

INFORMATION FOUND ABOUT YOUR CAUSE: (stats, images, articles, with website)

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW TO HELP SOLVE OR COMBAT THIS PROBLEM:
(provide at least two specific actions that you and other individuals can take to help solve the problem you have chosen, these should be things that can be done today)

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

CAUSE:

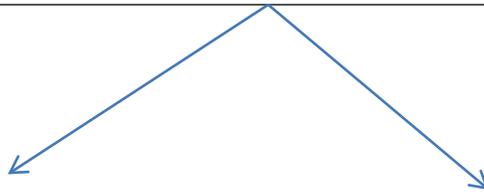

Information found about your cause:

What can you do to solve the problem?

- 1.
- 2.

One Cause You Are Willing to Fight For...

CAUSE:

Homelessness

YES

NO

OR

CAUSE:

Cost of College Tuition

YES

NO

Problems associated with being homeless are illnesses and diseases.

The average student loan (national average) indebtedness is $20,000

What can you do to solve the problem?

Volunteer at a soup kitchen

YES or NO

Volunteer at a homeless center

YES or NO

What can you do to solve the problem?

Write letters to congressmen/women

YES or NO

Develop a plan – to reward certain professions with student loan forgiveness

YES or NO