

Angelo Falcone

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

Political Oppression, he (as a 12 year old boy) was forced to serve in Mussolini's Blackshirts in Italy.

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

Came over on the ship Roma, stayed in a big cabin with a dozen other people, many people did not eat because they were sea sick

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

Confusing, immigrant officer shouting instructions and a lot of people, it took him several hours to be processed

Marge Glasgow

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

Religious Oppression, religious tension in Scotland between Catholics and Protestants

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

It took 10-days by ship, she got homesick on the way over and felt lonely

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

She remembers the Great Hall and all the doctors and judges questioning people

Larry Edelman

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

To escape conflict and chaos (political oppression), Germany was threatening his country of Poland

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

First had to get off Europe during WWI navigating through mine fields, took him 8-days aboard the steamship the Celtic, not in steerage they had their own dorm and bunks.

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

Remembers seeing the Statue of Liberty and seeing passengers on board cry tears of joy at the sight of it. Arrived Saturday and had to wait to be processed until Monday because that when the doctors would return.

Ellis Island Compare/Contrast Chart

Topic Area:	Re-enactment in Class:	Video:	Readings:
Questions asked by the Inspector:
Wait Time:
Medical Inspections:
Reasons for Deportation:
Overall Conditions:

Please add any additional similarities or differences that you remember onto the back of this sheet.

Angelo Falcone Pages 71-72

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

_____ Oppression, he (as a 12 year old boy) was forced to serve in Mussolini's Blackshirts in Italy.

- A) Political
- B) Religious

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

Came over on the ship, _____, stayed in a big cabin with a dozen other people, many people did not eat because they were sea sick.

- A) Romada
- B) Roma

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Confusing, _____ officers shouting instructions and a lot of people, it took him several hours to be processed.

- A) immigrant
- B) police

Marge Glasgow Pages 135-138

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

_____ Oppression, religious tension in Scotland between Catholics and Protestants.

- A) Political
- B) Religious

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

It took ____ days by ship, she got homesick on the way over and felt lonely.

- A) 10
- B) 8

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

She remembers the _____ Hall and all the doctors and judges questioning people.

- A) Shorty
- B) Great

Larry Edelman – Pages 154-156

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

To escape the conflict and chaos (_____ oppression), Germany was threatening his country of Poland.

- A) political
- B) religious

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

First had to get out of Europe during WWI navigating through mine fields, took him ___ days aboard the steamship, the Celtic, they had their own dorm and bunks.

- A) 8
- B) 10

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Remembers seeing the _____ and seeing passengers on board cry tears of joy at the sight of it. Arriving Saturday and had to wait to be processed until Monday because that is when the doctors would return.

- A) Empire State Building
- B) Statue of Liberty

Angelo Falcone Pages 71-72

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

_____ Oppression, he (as a 12 year old boy) was forced to serve in Mussolini's _____ in Italy.

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

Came over on the ship, _____, stayed in a big cabin with a dozen other people, many people did not eat because they were sea sick.

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Confusing, _____ officers shouting instructions and a lot of people, it took him several hours to be processed.

Marge Glasqow Pages 135-138

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

_____ Oppression, religious tension in Scotland between _____ and
_____.

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

It took ____ days by _____, she got homesick on the way over and felt lonely.

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

She remembers the _____ Hall and all the doctors and judges questioning people.

Larry Edelman – Pages 154-156

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

To escape the conflict and chaos (_____ oppression), Germany was threatening his country of
_____.

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

First had to get out of _____ during WWI navigating through mine fields, took him ____ days aboard the steamship, the _____, they had their own dorm and bunks.

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Remembers seeing the _____ and seeing passengers on board cry tears of joy at the sight of it. Arriving Saturday and had to wait to be processed until Monday because that is when the _____ would return.

Angelo Falcone

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

Marge Glasgow

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

Larry Edelman

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like

Ellis Island Compare/Contrast Chart

Topic Area:	Re-enactment in Class:	Video:	Readings:
Questions asked by the Inspector:
Wait Time:
Medical Inspections:
Reasons for Deportation:
Overall Conditions:

Please add any additional similarities or differences that you remember onto the back of this sheet.

Open Ended

Angelo Falcone Pages 71-72

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Marge Glasqow Pages 135-138

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

Larry Edelman – Pages 154-156

1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:

2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:

3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.

IMMIGRATION: PERSONAL ACCOUNTS

Name: _____

Angelo Falcone Pages 71-72

	1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:
YES NO	Political Oppression, he (as a 12 year old boy) was forced to serve in Mussolini's Blackshirts in Italy.
	2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:
YES NO	Came over on the ship, Romada, stayed in a big cabin with a dozen other people, many people did not eat because they were sea sick.
	3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.
YES NO	Confusing, immigrant officers shouting instructions and a lot of people, it took him several hours to be processed.

Marge Glasqow Pages 135-138

	1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:
YES NO	Political Oppression, religious tension in Scotland between Catholics and Protestants.
	2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:
YES NO	It took 10 days by ship, she got homesick on the way over and felt lonely.
	3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.
YES NO	She remembers the Great Hall and all the doctors and judges questioning people.

Larry Edelman – Pages 154-156

	1.) Identify a push or a pull factor that helps explain why this immigrant made the decision to immigrate:
YES NO	To escape the conflict and chaos (religious oppression), Germany was threatening his country of Poland.
	2.) Describe several details about this immigrant's trip over to America:
YES NO	First had to get out of Europe during WWI navigating through mine fields, took him 8 days aboard the steamship, the Celtic, they had their own dorm and bunks.
	3.) Explain what this immigrant's Ellis Island experience was like.
YES NO	Remembers seeing the Statue of Liberty and seeing passengers on board cry tears of joy at the sight of it. Arriving Saturday and had to wait to be processed until Monday because that is when the doctors would return.