Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions: (Answer Key)

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?
   - They had to find a place to live, they had to find work and many did not personally know anybody else in the country

2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?
   - They were forced to work 10-12 hour days in cold and damp and unsanitary surroundings and stay on their feet the entire time they were working.

3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?
   - The meat-packing industry would often process meat that had been contaminated and still try to sell meat that has been spoiled.

4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?
   - Because most of the American public does not work in the meat-packing factories Upton Sinclair is describing, however, all of the American public does eat the meat that these factories are processing so it directly affects everybody.

Answer Key
Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions:

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?
   They had to ____________________ and many did not personally know anybody else in the country.
   A) find a place to live, they had to find work
   B) places to vacation

2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?
   They were forced to work __________ hour days in cold and damp and unsanitary surroundings and stay on their feet the entire time they were working.
   A) 6-8
   B) 10-12

3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?
   The meat-packing industry would often process meat that had been __________ and still try to sell meat that has been spoiled.
   A) contaminated
   B) thoroughly cleaned

4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?
   Because most of the American public does not work in the meat-packing factories Upton Sinclair is describing, however, all of the American public does eat the meat that these factories are processing so it directly affects ______________.
   A) a few
   B) everybody
Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions:

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?

   They had to find ___________ and ________________; and many did not personally know anybody else in the country.

2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?

   They were forced to work ______ hour days in cold and damp and unsanitary surroundings and stay on their feet the entire time they were working.

3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?

   The meat-packing industry would often process meat that had been ______________ and still try to sell meat that has been spoiled.

4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?

   Because most of the American public does not work in the meat-packing factories ____________ is describing, however, all of the American public does eat the meat that these factories are processing so it directly affects ______________.
Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions:

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?
2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?
3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?
4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?
Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions:

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?

   The problems the immigrants had to face were

2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?

   They were forced to

3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?

   The meat-packing industry would often

4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?

   The public was more concerned because

Visual Organization Strategy
Read Upton Sinclair’s The Jungle and answer the following questions:

1.) What problems did the new immigrants face?
   They had to find a place to live, they had to find work and many did not personally know anybody else in the country.

   YES

   NO

2.) How were workers mistreated in the packing plant?
   They were forced to work 6-8 hour days in cold and damp and unsanitary surroundings and stay on their feet the entire time they were working.

   YES

   NO

3.) What corrupt practices did the meat-packing industry follow?
   The meat-packing industry would often process meat that had been contaminated and still try to sell meat that has been spoiled.

   YES

   NO

4.) Why was the public more concerned with the descriptions of filthy surroundings and tainted meat than with the unfair and dangerous working conditions?
   Because most of the American public does not work in the meat-packing factories Upton Sinclair is describing, however, all of the American public does eat the meat that these factories are processing so it directly affects everybody.

   YES

   NO