

Term	Definition
	Rightful status, independence (a sovereign state, community, or political unit)
	To argue in favor of or support, recommend
	Pertaining to commerce, trade or business
	To refrain from claiming, pass on something, to put aside
	Uncivilized, barbarous, cruel, untamed
	The belief that Americans were endowed by a higher power with the right or duty to settle the west
	Having or showing a dutiful spirit of reference for God, pursuing something with religious zeal

Word Bank:

Advocate
 Waive
 Savage
 Piously
 Sovereignty
 Commercial
 Manifest Destiny

“The Star of Empire” speech by Albert J. Beveridge, September 25, 1900

What arguments did Beveridge propose in favor of imperialism?

That it is the duty of _____ to civilize the “uncivilized,” because we are greater or better/superior people.

- A) Americans
- B) Mexicans
- C) Chinese

“The Policy of Imperialism” speech by Carl Schurz, October 17, 1899

How did Schurz criticize the arguments that supported manifest destiny and the burden of civilized people?

We are in _____ to be determining who is and is not civilized.

- A) every position
- B) no position

Term	Definition
	Rightful status, independence (a sovereign state, community, or political unit)
	To argue in favor of or support, recommend
	Pertaining to commerce, trade or business
	To refrain from claiming, pass on something, to put aside
	Uncivilized, barbarous, cruel, untamed
	The belief that Americans were endowed by a higher power with the right or duty to settle the west
	Having or showing a dutiful spirit of reference for God, pursuing something with religious zeal

“The Star of Empire” speech by Albert J. Beveridge, September 25, 1900

What arguments did Beveridge propose in favor of imperialism?

That it is the duty of Americans to ...

“The Policy of Imperialism” speech by Carl Schurz, October 17, 1899

How did Schurz criticize the arguments that supported manifest destiny and the burden of civilized people?

We are in no position to...

Term	Definition
Waive
Advocate
Commercial
Sovereignty
Savage
Manifest destiny
Piously

“The Star of Empire” speech by Albert J. Beveridge, September 25, 1900

What arguments did Beveridge propose in favor of imperialism?

“The Policy of Imperialism” speech by Carl Schurz, October 17, 1899

How did Schurz criticize the arguments that supported manifest destiny and the burden of civilized people?

Correct? YES or NO	Term	Definition
YES	Waive	Rightful status, independence (a sovereign state, community, or political unit)
NO
YES	Advocate	To argue in favor of or support, recommend
NO
YES	Commercial	Pertaining to commerce, trade or business
NO
YES	Sovereignty	To refrain from claiming, pass on something, to put aside
NO
YES	Savage	Uncivilized, barbarous, cruel, untamed
NO
YES	Manifest destiny	The belief that Americans were endowed by a higher power with the right or duty to settle the west
NO
YES	Piously	Having or showing a dutiful spirit of reference for God, pursuing something with religious zeal
NO

“The Star of Empire” speech by Albert J. Beveridge, September 25, 1900

What arguments did Beveridge propose in favor of imperialism?

That it is the duty of Americans to civilize the “uncivilized,” because we are greater or better/superior people.

YES

NO

“The Policy of Imperialism” speech by Carl Schurz, October 17, 1899

How did Schurz criticize the arguments that supported manifest destiny and the burden of civilized people?

We are in no position to be determining who is and is not civilized, it is not our place to intervene in other peoples affairs.

YES

NO