

LEAN

Livingston Educational Autism Network

START

Statewide Autism Resources & Training
www.gvsu.edu/autismcenter

Livingston and Ingham County Autism Consortium invite you to attend this three-day workshop

Secondary Coaching Series

February 18, 2015 - Looking at ASD Differently

April 15, 2015 - Differentiation

May 20, 2015 - Adult Assistance/SelfAdvocacy

11:30 am - 2:30 pm

Livingston ESA, 1425 W. Grand River, Howell

Learning Objectives:

Looking at ASD Differently

- ◆ Understand and respect the characteristics of ASD
- ◆ Learn strategies to incorporate these into the school day to promote learning

2/18/15

Differentiation

- ◆ Learn to differentiate curriculum so students with ASD can access and engage in grade level learning
- ◆ Develop a framework for academic differentiation and grading matrix

4/15/15

Adult Assistance/ Self Advocacy

- ◆ Recognize that independence and social skills are primary goals for students with ASD
- ◆ Understand the need & role of adult support & self advocacy strategies for students with ASD

5/20/15

There is no cost to attend and space is limited. Register online at www.livingstonesa.org. Click on "Calendar" tab and scroll to the date of workshop. Click on START, click on "sign in to register". You will need to register for EACH session in the series to reserve your spot by repeating these steps. If this is your first time registering online for professional development, you will need to click on "Register" tab in upper right corner and follow steps to create an account.

