

Continuing Education for Social Workers in Ireland 2020

Social Workers will be introduced to the people, culture and social services in Ireland while gaining 45 continuing education clock hours toward Michigan social work licensure renewal including social work ethics and pain management. The program will draw particular attention to at-risk communities and vulnerable populations, social work training in Ireland, health care issues, substance abuse, children and families, politics and religion. Your immersion in to Irish culture will provide a geographically diverse journey with beautiful scenery as you travel from Dublin, the busy capital, on the east coast to the west coast Connemara and Burren areas.

This program meets the ethics and pain management requirements for license renewal. Additional important information is located in the web site description.

Dr. Joan Borst is currently a faculty member in the School of Social Work at Grand Valley State University. She recently published a text book titled, Social work and health care: Policy, practice, and professionalism, and was awarded the John Harford Foundation: Gerontology Education Grant 2008 to 2011 by the Council of Social Education.

Dates: July 18—29, 2020 (in Ireland)

Pre-departure meeting: June 27, from 9:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m.
DeVos Center, Grand Rapids

Presented By: Joan Borst

Cost: $2495

Register at www.gvsu.edu/swce

Recommended for LBSW and LMSW beginning skill level; for learning objectives and additional program information, please go to our web site.

Grand Valley State University School of Social Work, an accredited social work education program, is authorized by Administrative Rule 338.2965 to award 45.0 Michigan social work continuing education contact hours for this program.