

Legalized Marijuana's Impact

The debate between the pros and cons of legalizing marijuana is a hot topic in the United States. Training will explore the positive and negative effects as the result of legalization in its current state. In relation to substance abuse treatment, there have been identified difficulties following legalization that impact our clients recovery. Training will focus on our changing drug culture, personal values, and ethics in Social Work practice.

This program meets one hour of the ethics requirement for license renewal.

Katie Papke, LMSW, CAADC is an adjunct professor at GVSU. She works for the Department of Veteran Affairs specializing in homeless, trauma, and addiction. Katie has her own private practice specializing as a life coach and counselor for those working in the sex industry.
