

Unleashing Your Power: Advocacy for Social Workers

Join us for an advocacy workshop targeted to social workers to gain the basic skills to advocate for their clients and community at the state and federal level.

Jayme Vosovic is the West Michigan Community Engagement Specialist with the Michigan League for Public Policy (MLPP). In her role with MLPP, Jayme works with organizations throughout the region to connect the impact of budget and tax policies to their communities. She is committed to partnering with stakeholders to amplify constituent voices so that all Michiganders have the opportunity to thrive. As social worker, she feels strongly that social workers need to gain the skills necessary to advocate on policies that impact their clients and community. Prior to joining the League, Jayme served as the West Michigan Regional Coordinator for U.S. Senator Gary Peters and interned with Grand Rapids Mayor Rosalynn Bliss. Jayme has worked with survivors of sexual assault, families experiencing homelessness, the Mayor's Greening Initiative, affordable housing, and sits on the board of directors for Girls on the Run of Kent and Muskegon Counties. She holds a Bachelor of Social Work from Grand Valley State University and a Master in Social Work—with a macro focus—from Michigan State University.
