

2024-2025 Student Senate Elections Rules and Regulations

- No candidate may use any paid web advertisements or the GVSU Events Calendar to publicize their candidacy.
- No campaign materials may be displayed in classrooms for any individual candidate.
- No campaign material may be circulated via Blackboard or in the classroom without the professor's prior approval.
- No candidate may utilize the official Student Senate or Grand Valley logos in campaign-related materials or activities.
- No campaign shall be funded by any outside entity, business, corporation, or political action committee (PAC).
- All campaign materials must be approved per the Grand Valley State University posting policy (i.e. campaign materials must display the appropriate stamp(s) and be posted ONLY in approved areas).
- No campaign material may include the name of more than one candidate. Candidates must campaign individually unless they are running for President or Vice President.
- If there appears to be clear evidence of a campaign of more than one person, or some form of a slate, ALL individuals involved will be disqualified immediately at the discretion of the Elections Commission unless they are running for President or Vice President.
- Candidates MUST review the Grounds and Facility Use Policy before campaigning:
