A RESOLUTION TO: Recognize a unique act of heroism by two Grand Valley students, Trevor Fairfield and Jarret Basset, in saving a Danyell Oosterveld from a car crash.

Recognizing, that Grand Valley State University has service as a value, and that students are “encouraged to be active citizens, to become active service providers, and to take part in various service learning and volunteer opportunities in the community and abroad¹”;

Whereas, on January 20th, 2017 Danyell Oosterveld was driving on Lake Michigan Drive when police say a 19-year-old male driver hit her head on and she was soon trapped in the car²;

Whereas, that Trevor Fairfield and Jarret Basset pried this woman’s car door open and brought her to safety, an act that saved the woman’s life³;

Recognizing, that these two students took the value of service that is highly engrained at Grand Valley and applied it to a real-life situation;

Let It Be Resolved, that Grand Valley State University Student Senate recognizes a unique act of heroism by Jarret Basset and Trevor Fairfield and thank them for their service.
